

AXA's Driving Licence Checking Service

Why use DriverCheck?

DriverCheck provides driving licence checking services for businesses, including instantly checking their drivers' records against the DVLA database (also available for drivers in Northern Ireland, overseas and grey fleet).

These checks are then undertaken on a continual basis to ensure businesses remain compliant and reduce their drivers' road risk.

AXA's customers are offered a special discounted rate for DriverCheck's services.

Services offered by DriverCheck

Driving licence checking – Access to the driver's full driving licence, including current status, entitlement to drive, validity dates, plus past and current endorsements and points.

Road Risk Monitor – DriverCheck uses a Road Risk Monitor to segment drivers into three risk profiles, determined by the number of points on their licence records. Low, medium and high-risk drivers are checked at different frequencies.

Instant, secure access – Driving licences are instantly viewable on DriverCheck's encrypted online portal.

Compliance – DriverCheck is a member of the ADLV (Association for Driving Licence Verification), is GDPR compliant and has ISO 27001 accreditation.

Value added services – For drivers outside of the company car fleet and DVLA jurisdiction, foreign licence, Northern Ireland licence checks, and grey fleet checks are also available.

Benefits of DriverCheck

- Instant confirmation that the driver has the correct licence category for the job, optimising start dates.
- Improved risk and safety analysis for each driver, as all driving offences (past and present) and number of endorsements are identified.
- Confirmation that drivers are legally allowed to drive in that particular role, enabling compliance and effective insurance cover.
- Ability to verify the driver's legal name, address and date of birth.
- Being proactively informed of any new offences following the first check.
- Identification of driver restrictions (eg eye correction etc), ensures Duty of Care and effective job allocation.
