

Fatal injuries at work in Great Britain

Fatal injuries arising from accidents at work in Great Britain: Headline results 2016/17

Source: The British Property Federation (BPF)

Fatal Accidents to Employees by Cause 2016/2017

Source: HSE

The latest HSE figures suggest that 23% of all accidents and major injuries involve workplace transport with the main causes being:

- Operator error
- Poor management
- Poor safe systems of work
- Work place layout
- Lack of pedestrian and vehicular segregation

Workplace forklift truck claims stats for AXA from March 2017 to March 2018:

Number of forklift incident: total 281

Employee Liability
194

Public Liability
43

Personal Liability and Property Damage
44

Sum incurred: total £10,177,061

Employee Liability
£7,101,675

Public Liability
£2,894,816

Personal Liability and Property Damage
£180,569

For more information on how you can reduce the risk of forklift accidents in the workplace visit AXA Connect.